SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1866.

THE Luzerne county Republicans have nominated James Archbald for Congress. He is a Scotchman by birth, but has lived in that county forty years. For a long period he was Chief Engineer of a Railroad and Mines to the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company. For the last few years he has been President of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company. A sedate, quiet man, advanced in life, he possesses a fine mind, considerable culture, and much knowledge of practical affairs. Of the tens of thousands of laborers who have been under his orders, we think there is not one whose respect and good will he failed to secure, and this as much on account of his sterling uprightness as of his admirable self-control and equanimity. This nomination will doubtless be ratified by the Republicans of Susquehanna; and we have strong expectations that Mr. Archbald will beat his Democratic competitor, Mr. Dennison, the present incumbent.

For Assembly, Wm. Taggart, John M. Poor and Edmund Heermans are the candidates, and they are good ones.

ABOMINABLE.—In the speech of HIESTER CLYMER at Uniontown, as reported for the Pittsburgh Post, we find the following passage:

"By the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson became President of the United States. If, under his administration, harmony should come again to the land, who will not see in the auspicious event the spirit of God moving over the troubled waters."

Are we to understand that the spirit of which Mr. CLYMER so profanely speaks strengthened the heart and guided the arm of that democratic hero, J. WILKES BOOTH, and enabled him to bring about that "auspicious event?" Certain it is, that to BOOTH Mr. CLYMER and his party are indebted for their present momentary gleam of hope; and equally certain it is, that if the party who are now rallying around ANDREW JOHNSON shall be successful, the assassin of LINCOLN will be politically canonized as their greatest benefactor. Such is the depth to which an alliance with oppression and treason can sink men, who, if free, would be respectable. What are we to make of the language we have quoted, but the beginning of an effort to rescue the memory of that assassin from an immortality of infamy, and give him a place among the honored agents of Heaven?

[illegible] the name of the Hon. J. P. St[illegible] the Committee to receive the President upon his arrival in this city. We are absolutely confident this use has been made of the Judge's name without his consent. Doubtless, he would be quite willing, under ordinary circumstances, to honor the Presidency in the person of any incumbent; but the existing circumstances are extraordinary. The President, under cover of a journey for a laudable public purpose, is conducting a political canvass, and in a way which few gentlemen can approve. As the case stands, we feel authorized to say that the Judge will not participate in the reception.

In Louisville, the Conservatives have a grievance. Three white men have been arrested under the Civil Rights Bill, and held to bail by the United States Commission, upon a charge of attacking and robbing some black men. The Courier is indignant that "a parcel of ignorant negroes, having no conception of the solemnity or value of an oath, were permitted to swear away the liberty of white men." It seems to think it vastly better to go back to the old order of things, when "negroes had no rights that white men were bound to respect." Alas! that the Radicals should refuse immunity for white folk to rob black ones as often as they will.

"IF THERE was no other reason why the Republican party should be driven from power at once, the fact that its corrupt 'protective' policy is rapidly ruining our home industry would be sufficient."—New York Post.

And this, doubtless, is the true reason why the Post deserted the Republicans and turned in with rebels and copperheads. It wants to be rid of the Protection of American Industry. It judges correctly as to what [illegible] shares its hostility to that doctrine, [illegible]ation is natural.

[illegible] has a strange con[illegible] of the meaning of words. He complains of being attacked by a "subsidized press." The only journals that praise him are those which are in receipt of government patronage. The journals whose censures hurt him are those which lost governmental patronage because they would maintain their freedom of opinion and utterance respecting him and his Policy.

THE Southern Unionists in Convention at Philadelphia are hard to satisfy. The President is on a tour, making anti-Johnson men about as fast as can be, and they are not content. They have resolved to send a Committee of their own number over the President's track to see if they cannot beat him. Better hire the President to continue his travels till after the election.

FROM TEXAS there is news of a movement in the Legislature to reward rebel soldiers by a donation of public lands. Should the coalition succeed in capturing Congress who can tell what that body will be called on to do for the same sort of people?

AT [illegible], in his speech, the President said:

"I tell you all the powers in Hell cannot turn me from my purpose."

How to Have Good Health.
If the blood is thin and acid, healthy bile cannot be secreted; hence the first and all important thing for the debilitated and dyspeptic should be to commence the purification of their blood. Roback's Blood Purifier not only purifies and enriches the blood, but aids the great principles which give it power to resist disease. Mild, yet powerful, and so peculiarly successful in its operation, that a few bottles taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills, never fail to remove every particle of unhealthy accumulation, until the blood is purified, the whole system renovated, and the duties of life, which before had been burdens, become pleasures.

Lamps, Chandeliers, Water Fittings, &c.
We yesterday paid a visit to the well known plumbing and gas fitting establishment of Tom. T. Ewens, No. 191 Wood street, near Sixth, and were favored with an opportunity of examining all the latest patent gas, oil, water and steam fittings introduced. Mr. Ewens' stock in trade has been selected with much good care and judgment and nothing is found in it which is of an inferior quality or character. His display of pumps for garden and domestic purposes, hydrants, sinks, basins, tubs, and everything pertaining to farm or city dwellings, is remarkably fine. Mr. Ewens gives his own attention and supervision to all work entrusted to his care, and no word of ours can add to the high mechanical reputation he has attained in this community. We most cheerfully commend him to the public.

Where to Obtain a Fair Picture.
That Pittsburgh excels in turning out heavy guns, massive castings and heavy pieces of iron and steel ready for the purposes of the industrial arts, cannot be denied. But there is another thing in which we lead our contemporary cities, and that is in fine specimens of the art photographic. The really beautiful gems of that branch of the fine arts, which are upon exhibition at Dabb's palatial rooms and windows on St. Clair street, will fully bear us out in the assertion. The specimens are finer than the far famed pictures of Brady, Gutekunst, and others who have established a national reputation upon their execution of remarkably clear 'sun shadows.' Mr. Dabb's thoroughly understands every department of his business, and takes especial care that every picture which leaves his house shall bear the imprint of superiority and sustain his high reputation as an artist. If any of our friends are desirous of obtaining a photograph of any size or style, we can safely recommend them to favor this establishment with a call. It is No. 26 St Clair street.

Evasive.
Patrick, before he became joined in the bonds of "holy wedlock" with Bridget, was in the service of Father McNulty. One day that good priest expected a call from a Protestant minister, and wished some excuse to get rid of him. So calling Patrick, he proceeded to give him instructions.

"Patrick," said he, "if that [illegible] to-day, I do not [illegible]

"Yis[illegible] some kind of an excuse and send him away."

"What shall I tell him if he comes, your riverence?"

"Tell him I'm not at home."

"Would ye have me tell a lie to him, yer riverence?"

"No, no, Patrick; but get out some way—give him an evasive answer."

"An evasive answer, is it? I'll do it, av coorse, yer riverence."

The matter thus arranged, Father Mac retired to his library, and Patrick went about his duties. About dusk in the afternoon, the worthy priest came out of his room, and found Patrick in unusually good spirits.

"Well, Patrick," said he, "did the minister call to-day?"

"Yis, sir-r-r."

"And did you get rid of him?"

"I did, sir."

"Did he ask if I was in?"

"He did, sir."

"And what did you say to him?"

"I gave him an evasive answer."

"An evasive answer, Patrick!"

"Yis, yer riverence."

"And what did you say to him?"

"He axed me if ye's was in, and I tould him that yer riverence had gone to the boot and shoe store of J. A. Robinson & Co., No. 64 Market street, to buy some boots and shoes for the gossoons, bekase yiz could buy thim chaper there than any where else."

The Laws of Health.
It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self-preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter. There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex, in this country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature art, commerce, and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable anti-bilious medicine, a promoter of appetite, a gentle and harmless stimulant, a good [illegible] medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the [illegible] effects of malaria and [illegible]

Fenian Congress at Troy—The Members Sworn to Secrecy—Bad Feeling Against Sweeny—The Address of President Roberts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A special from Troy last evening says the Committee on Credentials of the Fenian Congress completed its labors at a late hour this afternoon. The Congress was duly organized and ready for business. Gen. M. C. Murphy, of New York, was elected Speaker of the House, but declined the honor, when Mr. F. G. Gallaher, of Buffalo, was elected. Mr. J. C. O'Brien, was elected Secretary.

The members of the Congress were sworn to secrecy, and a resolution was adopted forbidding the communication of any of the business of the session to the press for publication. The Congress then adjourned to nine o'clock to-morrow, when President Roberts' address will be presented.

The delay in the report of the Committee on Credentials was occasioned by the appearance of certain delegates who claimed to represent circles in Canada. Their credentials were scrutinized most closely, but whether they were admitted or not I am unable to learn. One delegate is here from Prince Edward's Island.

I learn from good authority that the feeling against General Sweeney is rather on the increase among the delegates, but it is almost impossible to predict the result of the Congressional action in his case, as the tables may be entirely turned upon his adversaries by his official report of the Canadian movement.

The address of President Roberts is an able and statesmanlike document, and treats of the origin and progress of the Fenian Brotherhood, from its inception to the present time. The next movement is being thoroughly discussed by members in little knots about the hotels and streets.

Affairs on the Frontier—More Indian Outrages—Two Settlements Broken up.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Topeka, says: It is reported from the Fort Sarah junction of Fort Riley and Smoky Hill Roads that seventy Cheyenne Indians have started for the Picket settlement, Colorado, to re-capture two children taken from the Indians in the Sand Creek affair, and then clear the Smoky Hill route of all whites, while eighty-five more Cheyennes have started for the Arkansas to commit depredations there, and that they have sent invitations to the Sioux, Kiowas and Camanches to join them in sweeping the frontier from Western Kansas to Colorado.

The Pawnees have broken up two settlements on the Salmon, and ravished a number of women. They swear that the whites shall not occupy their territory.

General Sherman writes that the settlements are ninety miles too far west, and that he has not the troops to protect them within one hundred miles of Fort Riley.

The Stock Agent of the Overland Mail Stage Company, was met by a band of Indians while taking out stock for the road, and was ordered back. He was given ten days to remove the stock from that route, before their raid.

The Union State Convention has unanimously recommended the Legislature to submit the question of striking the word "white" from the State Constitution to the people. Governor Crawford was unanimously renominated for Governor, and Major Green for Lieutenant Governor.

St. Louis Cholera Report—Preparations for the Presidential Reception—More Indian Outrages—Railroad Accident.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—Eight cemeteries report fifty-nine burials from cholera yesterday.

Preparations for the reception of the President to-morrow are about completed. Thirty-six steamers, each representing a different State in the Union, decorated with flags, devices, &c., leave for Alton at eight o'clock to-morrow morning. The Presidential party will be assigned to the steamer "Andy Johnson," to which will be lashed the steamers Ruth and Olive Branch for the accommodation of the various committees. Gen. Hancock and Staff accompany the party to Alton.

Montana advices say that General Steele, with a small escort, was attacked by Indians. Forty-seven mules were taken from them. The whole party came near being captured.

A freight train on the Illinois Central Railroad ran off the track at St. Johns to-day, killing the conductor, engineer, and one brakeman. The locomotive and several cars were badly smashed.

NEW YORK, September 7.—The Times says: In the Texas Legislature, August 14th, Mr. Jackson offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public [illegible] to enquire into the [illegible] of donating three hundred and twenty acres to each Confederate soldier who by reason of wounds received in the late war, is incapacitated for labor, and to report by bill or otherwise.

A guerrilla leader, Dick Hempsted, was on Wednesday captured by the Regulators, near Little Rock, Arkansas, who, after trying and finding him guilty of eleven murders, all of which he confessed, burned him to death by a slow fire, which totally consumed his body.

Mr. Jackson, representative in the State Legislature for Jackson county, Tennessee, has brought suit for ten thousand dollars damages against the Radical members of the House for false imprisonment.

Exciting Debate in the Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—Quite an exciting debate took place at the Convention on the address of the Committee of non-reconstructed States, and on the resolutions of John Minor Botts. The calling of ayes and nays having been ordered a scene of excitement ensued. John Minor Botts demanded a division of the question, requiring a separate vote on the first portion of the report, and another on the latter portion, in respect to manhood suffrage. Twenty or thirty members jumped to their feet and strongly opposed such a division, and half a dozen others were also shouting at the same time for the Chairman's attention.

Mr. Botts' motion was finally ruled out of order.

The calling of the roll was commenced, and the vote resulted in 66 ayes against 8 nays. On the announcement of the vote the enthusiasm was great.

New Orleans Cholera Report—Proclamation Ordering an Election.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6.—The cholera deaths yesterday were seventeen, and yellow fever one.

The Governor's proclamation ordering an election on the Third of September for members to the Convention in the unrepresented parishes, have been totally disregarded. No election has been held.

The report of the Military Commission on the riot has been forwarded. The Washington commission, however, remains undisbanded.

The steamer Saxon from Liverpool has arrived.

Cholera in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—There were seven new cases of cholera and five deaths from the same disease reported in this city yesterday. The reports from Brooklyn showed no material change in the disease.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday. The Sanitary Superintendent's report showed that forty-nine cases of cholera have been reported during the week ending Saturday. Of this number thirty were fatal. In Brooklyn there were twenty-five confirmed cases, of which seventeen were fatal.

The League House Fire—Flags Saved—Insurance.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—The upper stories of the Union League House are seriously damaged. At two o'clock the firemen got control of the flames. The lower portion will be saved. The damage was done chiefly by water, the walls remaining intact. The American flag, which was hoisted over the building and the Ellsworth flag, which was hanging from the walls, were saved by the firemen. The insurance will cover the loss, which will reach 25,000 dollars.

THE PRESIDENTIAL EXCURSION.

Anxiety to See General Grant.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON INTERRUPTED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7, 8:30 P. M.—Several of the party have left us, including Minister Romero and Postmaster General Randall. The excursionists have been subjected to some annoyance by uninvited persons intruding upon them and assuming disgusting prominence, and in some cases dividing in the processions and otherwise the members of the party. We are now on the special train of the Chicago and Alton Railroad bound to Springfield, Illinois. A large crowd was at the Station and cheered as the train moved.

LEMONT, ILL., 9:45 A. M.—The President and other prominent members of the party were introduced by Mr. Seward, who asked how many States there are in the Union. A man in the crowd replied, "Thirty-six." "If you take Tennessee out," Mr. Seward continued, "how many will remain?" "We don't allow any to be taken out," was the response. "But Congress does." Another Voice—"Seward, you are in good company." Mr. Seward—"Yes, we are very [illegible]

JOLIET, Sept. 7—10:30 A. M.—Notwithstanding the rain a large crowd had assembled. The President, Secretary Seward, Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut were as usual presented on the platform. The people were intensely excited. Enquiry was made for General Grant, and when it was announced that he was at the rear door of the car, the mass swayed in that direction, and greeted him with hearty cheers. Such manifestation of appreciation of him have been everywhere expressed by all classes and parties. A large boquet was thrust upon him by a young lady. Admiral Farragut has also everywhere received the plaudits of his admirers. The President has generally received warm receptions, but various in degree of enthusiasm, according to the prevailing political sentiment in the localities.

ATALANTA, Sept. 7; 2:45 P. M.—The party were received with a salute and introduced to the crowd. We have passed Lincoln [illegible], after having stopped at each place five minutes for [illegible]. The Committee of Invitation from Springfield came on board.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 7; 4:30 P. M.—A large crowd had assembled at the depot. A salute was fired and music played by the band. The President was first introduced and then others. The people clamored for General Grant, and on his appearance the shouts were terrific and long continued. Quarters were provided at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

WILMINGTON, September 7.—The President, in response to the calls for a speech, said that one could not reasonably be expected from him now for want of time. Gen. Grant, Admiral Farragut and others were introduced to the meeting with the usual warm reception.

PONTIAC, 12:20, Sept. 7.—The train stopped for several minutes.

BLOOMINGTON, 3 P. M., September 7.—Here the President, Admiral Farragut, and others, were introduced by Hon. John Hogan, of Missouri, to the crowd. The greatest possible anxiety was evident to see General Grant. Loud and repeated calls were made for him, the spectators being wild with excitement. The General appeared on the platform, and was greeted with vociferous applause. When he retired, President Johnson commenced speaking, but was interrupted by renewed cheers for Grant, and a voice, "We don't want traitors hunting bread and butter at the home of Lincoln," to which Mr. Hogan replied, "All you are afraid of is losing your bread and butter, and that's what's the matter." The President remarked that he was on the line with General Grant contending for the Union of the States. Before he could say more the whistle screeched and the train resumed its way.

PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

SOUTHERN LOYALISTS.

Last Day's Proceedings.

GREETINGS FROM PENNSYLVANIA AND ILLINOIS.

Retiring Remarks of General Speed.

ADDRESS OF THE NON-RECONSTRUCTED COMMITTEE.

Impartial Suffrage Advocated.

INTERESTING DEBATE ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Adjourned Sine Die.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—The Southern Convention met at ten o'clock, when the proceedings were opened with prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Newman. There were but few delegates from the border States present. Mr. Speed, of Kentucky, however, was in the chair.

The President laid before the Convention a document from the Grand State Council of Pennsylvania, sending their greetings to the Convention. Also, a similar one from the State of Illinois, endorsing the address and platform, and pledging Illinois to a majority of forty thousand.

Mr. Newness, of Kentucky, offered a resolution returning thanks to the Union Club, of Philadelphia, for its hospitality and kindness. He referred to the burning of the Club House, last night, as an incendiary act, and reminded the Convention that in his speech at the Continental Hotel, the President of the United States had used the significant language that he wanted no leagues but the constitution. On the strength of that hint, this calamity had followed, whether or not with the President's knowledge or consent, he did not intend to say. He had no doubt, however, that such was the suggestion of the President's mind; but his emissaries would find that the Union League of America did not dwell in a house made with hands.

The resolution was adopted; also another resolution offered by Mr. Botts, of Virginia, sympathizing with the Union League.

Mr. Bingham, of Alabama, offered a resolution complimenting the New York Tribune for its devotion to the cause of freedom and free education.

On motion of Mr. Mason, of Virginia, the resolution was amended by adding the New York Independent and all other good Republican papers, and then it was adopted.

The Chairman presented a letter from Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, announcing his departure for home on the ground that the business of the Convention concluded yesterday.

Mr. Markell, of Arkansas, rose and declared that Arkansas was not unrepresented here. (Cheers.) He intimated that his retiring colleague had been too far North, and been contaminated by "My Policy."

The report of the Committee of the non-reconstructed States being about to be read, General Speed retired from the chairmanship of the Convention. In doing so he said:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—Having stayed here so long, I am now called away by business of the utmost importance. Knowing that the general business of the Convention is through, I take my leave, as I consider the Convention incompetent to pass upon anything other than the report of the Committee of non-reconstructed States, and it is distinctly understood by everybody, I believe, that in that matter none are to take part except the representatives of those States. I thank the Convention most cordially for the good order it has preserved, and for the assistance it has given me. I trust that our labors have been well done. I trust, and believe, from the lightning flashes that have come from California, Kansas, Chicago, and other portions of the country, that we have not assembled in vain.

As Mr. Speed retired, he was complimented by the Convention rising and giving him three cheers.

Mr. Warmouth, of La., reported back the resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Eaton of Tennessee, requesting the President of the United States, to cause the publication of the report of the testimony taken before the committee appointed by General Baird, in reference to the New Orleans massacre. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Warmouth then read the address prepared by the Committee of the non-reconstructed States. It is much longer than the previous address, and favors impartial suffrage. A long debate ensued, when a vote was taken and resulted ayes 66, nays 11, so the address was adopted. The nays were: Messrs. Botts, Butts and Gilmore, of Virginia, Hunter, of Ga., Saffald, Blank and Cramer.

The result was loudly cheered.

Several portions of the address were applauded, and at one point groans for Andy Johnson were called for and given. The paragraph in reference to impartial suffrage was cheered very enthusiastically.

Mr. Goodloe, of North Carolina, while sympathizing with the sufferings of the people of the South, as detailed in the address, did not agree in the conclusion thereof. In other words, he was opposed to imposing negro suffrage on the south, particularly under the present administration, as the result would be the opposite of that desired by this Convention. He subsequently added that he himself was in favor of negro suffrage; that he had written a letter in support of it, which had been published, and that he was going home to follow up that letter. At the same time he wished the people of the South themselves to control the matter. The speeches of Fred Douglass and Theodore Tilton, yesterday, had shown how rapidly the progress of liberal opinions in this country was, and if they were correct he thought they could afford to wait [illegible] impartial suffrage would be sure to become a popular principle.

Captain Tourger, of North Carolina, spoke in opposition to his colleague's views, and in favor of negro suffrage, saying that he had definite instructions from over two thousand men in his State on that point. He argued that it was absolutely necessary in order to protect Union men at the South, and checkmate the designs of the President. They came here claiming justice, liberty, protection and salvation for the white men of the South, as well as for the black men. While he was speaking Fred Douglass entered the hall, and was greeted with cheers and the clapping of hands.

Mr. Goodloe asked whether his colleague thought that even if they had impartial suffrage, the negroes would be allowed, while Andrew Johnson was President, to go to the polls and vote?

Mr. Tourger replied that they would be.

A delegate rose and said that if not, a million loyal men in the North would enforce the right. (Cheers.)

Mr. Bryant, of Georgia, added that four millions of black men in the South would help. (Renewed cheers.)

Mr. Tourger went on to say that the gentlemen of the Convention might wriggle and squirm as much as they pleased, but they could not avoid the issue of negro suffrage. The question was, whether they would adopt the principle or point out to their enemies their only hope of safety.

Mr. Randolph, a colored delegate from Louisiana, as the only representative of his race who was legally entitled to a seat in the Convention, spoke in advocacy of negro suffrage. He called upon them to come up and face the music, let the consequences be what they might. He appealed to them as the only representative of four millions of people to do them justice. If not they would regret it for when the time came that the negroes did vote, they would be likely to remember their friends and not forget their foes. (Cheers.)

Rev. J. W. Hunnicutt, of Virginia, followed on the same side of the question. After he had been speaking sometime, relating personal anecdotes in reference to the treatment he had received in Fredericksburg and Richmond, Mr. Fernandez, of Louisiana, rose and protested against the time of the Convention being occupied in listening to a biography of the delegate from Virginia.

The Chair sustained the point of order.

Mr. Hunnicutt resumed his remarks, but had again very soon to be called to order on like grounds. He then proceeded to advocate negro suffrage, and stated that the negroes of Richmond had made up a purse of one hundred dollars to send him here. He appealed to the Convention to enfranchise the negro and disenfranchise the rebel, and then they would have loyal State governments in the South, loyal churches, loyal lawyers and loyal preachers.

Governor Hamilton, of Texas, then took the stand and spoke in favor of the adoption of the address and resolutions. It has been asked this morning, he said, how the laws establishing impartial suffrage would be enforced under the present administration. His answer was that they should not pass in the [illegible]

A declaration in favor of negro suffrage, signed by the delegates from Tennessee, who had been excluded from voting, that State being treated as one of the reconstructed, was read. Delegates from the reconstructed States who were in favor of negro suffrage, were then invited to sign, what was called, the charter of universal freedom.

Resolutions were offered and adopted in favor of subscription, for the publication of the proceedings of the Convention. Several other resolutions were then adopted, among them, one to present Congress with a copy of the address. After a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Mattison, at three o'clock the Convention adjourned sine die.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

The Fifth U. P. Church, corner of Washington and Webster Streets.

The beautiful new church edifice of the Fifth United Presbyterian congregation of this city, recently erected upon the north-east corner of Washington and Webster streets, will be dedicated to-morrow to the worship of God. The dedicatory sermon will be delivered in the morning by the zealous pastor of the church, Rev. S. B. Reed. In the afternoon an appropriate sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. James T. Pressley, and in the evening Rev. Dr. James Prestley will occupy the pulpit.

As the church edifice has attracted considerable attention during its course of erection, we have made a brief description of the beautiful structure reared to the glory of God by a congregation composed nearly altogether of the mechanics and working classes of our city. Too much credit cannot be awarded to the members who contributed so largely out of their limited means to further the completion of such a creditable monument to their religious zeal and faith.

The building, exteriorly, makes a very fine appearance, being built of bright pressed brick, two stories in height, in the modern style of architecture, the front entrance being on Webster street, with a number of handsome shade trees on either side. The edifice is ninety feet deep by sixty in width. The main entrance or outer door opens into a vestibule, the walls of which are frescoed in imitation of grey stone work, and the floor covered with an excellent quality of fine matting. Directly in front of the entrance is a wide door, quaintly carved, that leads to a spacious lecture room on the first floor. At either side of the vestibule are a flight of heavy oaken stairs, protected by a massive oaken ballustrade, tastefully grained, that winds upward to the second floor, and into another vestibule, similar to the one below, save that the upper one is lighted by five windows of stained glass, through which the light comes in subdued streams, forming a sort of a twilight, in keeping with the character of the place.

Three doors, covered with green baize, open out of this vestibule into the audience room. Here everything is neat and tasteful in the extreme. The three broad aisles are covered by a mosaic pattern of English ingrain, the colors being red and black, with a golden thread running through the woof. The walls are elegantly frescoed in great massive panels, the centre of which are a light maroon color, with gray cornice work, painted with a strict regard to the light and shade. The walls of this apartment are pierced by ten pier windows of stained glass—five on each side—the space between the windows being filled by a panel, while above each one is an ancient shield in fresco. The ceiling is also handsomely frescoed, the colors being chaste and appropriate. In the centre is a large sunlight with eighteen gas jets, the light from which is thrown downward by an equal number of silver reflectors. The most notable feature, however, in the whole auditorium is the pulpit, or chancel, which is at the extreme end of the room, immediately in front of the main entrance and the spacious gallery over the vestibule. It consists of a raised platform two feet from the floor, eighteen in width by eight in depth.

The front is solid, and is made to serve the purpose of a pulpit, while the whole is surrounded by a railing constructed in imitation of Grecian urns, surmounted by a heavy cap and supported by a paneled base. The whole is painted of a snowy whiteness, which contrasts well with the ebony walnut furniture within the railing. The rear of the chancel is frescoed in imitation of an alcove or mosque, the columns of which come to a focus at the top or dome, the centre of which is pierced with an orifice that looks out on the sky. A beautiful clock, with marble face, has been placed in the gallery by Messrs. Dunseath & Co., Fifth street.

Altogether, the Church is one of the most creditable edifices devoted to the worship of God to be found in either of the two Cities.

Messrs. Barr & Moser were the architects of the building, and Messrs. Marshall & Kerr the builders. The carpeting and upholstry was done by McFarland, Collins & Co., the gas fitting by T. T. Ewens, the painting by Wm. Nelson, and fresco painting by Kehrwelder & Bros.

The basement of the Church, we may add, will be used as lecture and school rooms. The Church is handsomely roofed with fine slates. The entire cost of the edifice was $35,000, exclusive of the very valuable lot upon which it erected. The pews have nearly all been taken and we learn that there are numerous applications for the remainder.

Analeptic Medicines.

The feeble man or woman whose constitution has been debilitated or exhausted by the existence of an acute disease, would naturally look about for some remedy from whose certain powers, relief could be obtained—what is wanted in such a condition is [illegible] restorative, to incite into healthy activity the various organs of the body which have ceased for a while to fulfil the various indications consonant with health—reader you will find such a remedy in Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. The blood, charged with noxious material and recrementitious elements, is strained and purified, by the various organs appointed for that purpose, under that greatly stimulating and invigorating tonic and alterative Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. The stomach, the preparer of all the food which goes to the nourishment of life, is enabled by Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, to separate the dross from the pure blood which is designed to rebuild the crumbling frame and to give tone and vigor to every organ and part which it is destined to supply.—Dyspepsia would be an unknown disease if Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher were more generally known and used—liver complaints would exist only in name. Dropsy, gravel, kidney disease and the various tormenting and annoying skin diseases, even cancers, are readily cured by its persevering employment. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher we say, [illegible] of contradiction, has cured more cases of chronic disease for the number of bottles used, than any proprietary medicine in the United States and every day brings fresh trophies of its wonderful curative powers. We invite the attention of the sick man to a careful examination of its wonderful virtues and the extraordinary cures it has made; cures without a paralel in the annals of medical science. Please read the following certificate:

TETTER OR SALT RHEUM.—Dr. Keyser: I have been afflicted with tetter or salt rheum for about thirty years. The last ten years it became erysipelatous. It was of the worst kind. My whole body was covered with it. The spots over my body were as large as a copper cent. My face and eyes were covered so much with it, that I was almost blind. I lost my hearing to such a degree that I could not hear without speaking very loud to me. I tried all kinds of doctors of every school of medicine for years without any benefit, and went to some a very great distance who were celebrated as physicians. I had to keep my hands tied up, they were so troublesome and covered with the disease. I am now well, and have been cured by taking less than a dozen bottles of "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher," at a cost of that many dollars, where I had spent hundreds before. You may publish this, if you wish, for the benefit of other sufferers.

ELIZABETH GAREN,
Chester, Meigs County, Ohio.

Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and take no other, at 140 Wood street. One dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars. If your druggist does not keep it, write to Dr. Keyser and he will forward by express.

Amusements.

Another immense house greeted Miss Lucille Western last night at the Opera House, in her great impersonation of Lady Isabel, in the romantic drama of East Lynne. As an actress Miss Western has some faults, but in this role she sinks them all, and appears almost to perfection. Her interview with the Earl in the third act, we must confess is a masterly piece of acting, and well calculated to touch the heart of the most callous observer. Even the wild agony of remorse in this scene is eclipsed by the terrible anguish at the death bed of her child, in the succeeding act. In this scene she brings tears from the eyes of almost every auditor.

To-night East Lynne will be repeated.

At the Academy of Music, Miss Annette Ince appeared last evening in her great character of Mary Stuart in Ristori's historical drama of "Mary, Queen of Scots." To say that Miss Ince played the character well would be but faint praise when she deserves so much. Her reading of the part was splendid while her acting was of that peculiar excellence that rivets the attention and carries the spectator from one act to another almost against the will. Miss Ince is, in our estimation, an actress of rare ability and one who always pleases. We were happy to see that the attendance was much larger than any preceding night, and that the audience was composed of the elite of our city. The Manageress, Miss DeLee, has already won the confidence of our theatre going people, and in a short time will become a favorite here. An immense bill is up for to-night.

At the Old Drury, Mrs. Emma Waller, the great tragic Queen, continues to attract fair houses. During the present week she has [illegible] "Duchess of Malfi." To those who admire the legitimate drama, we would say, go by all means and see Mrs. Waller.

Managers Smythe and Aiken still continue to add to the attractions at the Varieties, and [illegible]. The list of first class stars at this house is sufficient to fill the seat [illegible] every evening by the lovers of the [illegible] performances. It is useless to advertise [illegible] who have been there to go again, as they will be sure to do it anyhow.

The Fall Trade.

Our merchants—and more especially those whose business is associated, even in the most remote way with the fluctuating fashions—are making preparations for the fall and winter trade by filling their establishments with the requisite stock.

Among those who are making themselves pre-eminently conspicuous in providing, for the fall trade is Mr. William Fleming, the proprietor of the large hat, cap, and fur emporium No. 139 Wood street. During a late visit to the east he purchased an immense supply of hats and caps, of all styles, that he might be prepared to please the taste of a Beau Brummell, were he to favor Mr. Fleming with a call. A man may be the "glass of fashion and the mould of form," but let him but appear in a wretched hat and the beauty of his person is destroyed. Holmes in his "Rhymed Lesson" particularly warns the male biped from wearing a "shocking hat," and we agree with him. But the hat and cap business is not the only one for which Mr. Fleming's house has gained such a notoriety, for his fine stock of furs—from the cheap fitch to the costly and elegant sable—cannot be excelled by any other house in town. Besides all this, the prices at this house are so low as to admit of but the slightest margin for profit.

Before supplying yourselves, ladies, with furs for the winter, give our friend, Mr. Fleming, a call, and our word for it, you will have no cause to regret the visit.

Women of the War.

This is a new work by Frank Moore, author of the "Rebellion Record." It is written in the very best style of this well known and popular author, and completely enchains the reader's attention from the preface to the closing page. It is full of striking pictures and vivid descriptions of scenes enacted in the late war, and, unlike many other works on that subject, is literally true, being in fact nothing less than a history of the many noble women, who, in the hour of their country's peril, performed daring achievements for the cause of liberty and right.

The author has at an immense outlay of time and money collected a narrative of the services performed by real heroines during the period referred to. Among these are the sketches of two ladies of our own city, Miss Mary Bissell and Miss Martha J. Fowler. This is a book that should be placed in the hands of every mother and daughter in the country, that the bright example set them by their own sex might not be lost to them. Messrs. Emery & Howes, No. 68 Fifth street, are the agents for this publication, and those wishing the work should apply to them in person or by mail. Agents are wanted to sell this book in West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and Western New York.

Mayor's Court.

Five drunks, four males and one female, were before his Honor, Mayor McCarthy, yesterday morning. Two paid their fines, and the remainder were sent to jail for twenty-four hours.

Three young men were also before his Honor charged with disorderly conduct. Their names are Stanley H. Foley, John P. Barry and Marcus A. Francis. They attempted to enter a respectable house, under the impression that it was a house of ill-fame—so they say. They insulted the female portion of the family, were arrested, placed in the lock up, taken out yesterday morning, and fined twenty-five dollars each. Failing to come down with the money, [illegible] five days in default [illegible] knocking down, and [illegible] brother. The condition of th[illegible] somewhat critical, but the result will probably be known by the expiration of Phillip's imprisonment.

The Pittsburgh Paper Manufacturing Company.

Among the important enterprises which are so constantly starting up in our midst, swelling the trade of the city, and still higher advancing its reputation as a great mart of manufacturers, is the Pittsburgh Paper Manufacturing Company, whose office and warehouse are at 84 Third street. This Company has purchased, and at great expense enlarged and improved, the celebrated "Clinton Paper Mill" at Steubenville, and also an extensive mill near New Brighton. At these establishments are produced in large quantities, several varieties of paper, such as printing, tack, hardware, manilla and wrapping; also roofing felt. A heavy and well assorted stock will always be found at their depot. The Secretary and agent of the Company for this city, Samuel Riddle, Esq., late Postmaster of Allegheny, will be found here, as ever, the urbane, obliging and prompt man of business.

Child Scalded.

A little daughter of Mr. Ernest Miller, residing at No. 140 Centre avenue, was severely scalded, yesterday afternoon, by upsetting a tea urn containing boiling tea, upon her head. The urn was sitting on the table, near the edge, and the little one, who is only four or five years of age, was endeavoring to fill a tin with the liquid, when it descended on her head, scalding her breast and arms in a terrible manner. Dr. Barron was summoned, and dressed the little one's injuries. He expressed some doubt as to her ultimate recovery.

The Soldiers' Convention.—In all probability the National Sailors' and Soldiers' Reunion, to be held here on the 25th inst., will be one of the grandest affairs ever known in this city. In all the loyal Northern States the "Boys in Blue" are in motion, preparing to send large delegations to represent them. The loyal people are requested at once to set about making arrangements for receiving the brave fellows in an appropriate manner. Flags should be got ready, decorations prepared, mottoes painted, and in short everything which might conduce to the general enthusiasm of the occasion should be attended to. The soldiers of this district are anxious that their brethren shall receive such a spontaneous welcome as Pittsburgh only knows how to give the gallant defenders of our country.

United States Court.—In the United States District Court, yesterday morning, on motion of District Attorney Carnahan, judgments were entered in the cases of the United States vs. D. E. Nass, Henry Ohlen and F. G. King, and also in the case of the United States vs. Henry M. [illegible] with D. D. Hammond and Geo. E. [illegible].

In the same Court, and at the same time, the legal time having elapsed, the report of the Commissioner in regard to the appropriation of funds arising from the sale of the [illegible] was confirmed absolutely, and the [illegible] directed to distribute the funds accordingly.

[illegible]nt.—The grand festival held in Masonic Hall during the past two nights, by the Lincoln Guards (colored.) of Allegheny city, was in every respect a complete success. Our colored folks turned out en masse, and between music, dancing and promenading had quite a pleasant time. The best of order characterized the affair. The Lincoln Guards deserve much praise for the highly creditable manner they arranged and carried out this their first public re-union.

Resolutions of Respect.—At a recent meeting of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union of Allegheny City, a series of resolutions were adopted expressive of the deep sorrow they feel over the death of their late highly esteemed member, Mr. James Williams. He was an honorable, high-minded gentleman, and this expression of mourning and respect for his memory must prove a balm of consolation to the sorrow-stricken family of the deceased.

Heavy Storm.—A heavy storm of wind and rain passed around the city yesterday afternoon, a portion of it passing over the city. The clouds were so dense that the city was enveloped in darkness, and in the Court room, where we were at the time, it was found necessary to light the gas.

Charged with Larceny.—James Thompson was before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, charged with the larceny of an eight day clock from the residence of Jane Milligan, on Pike street, in the Fifth ward. The accused gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Get the Best—They Always Give Satisfaction.

Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case to know how to articulate the teeth so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly. His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars. Remember his number, 273 Penn street third door above Hand.

A CHANGE.

Awhile ago it was fashionable for such journals as the New York Times to speak of the Radicals with supercilious contempt as a handfull of fanatics, barren of intelligence and destitute of influence, who were literally to be crushed into proper insignificance by a majestic uprising of the many in approbation of the President and his Policy. Latterly a new light has flooded the minds of these journalists. They have made the discovery that the Radicals are neither few in number nor despicable in resources. The Times confesses that they are "alarmingly effective; and charges that "they have aroused public passion to an intense and perilous height." It depicts the rapid increase of their ranks by the accession thereto of "thousands and hundreds of thousands of candid and well-meaning men throughout the land," insomuch that "there is imminent risk a renewed and still more terrible civil war." Some of these statements are so wild they show how strong an impression the present attitude of the loyal multitudes has made on the fears of our contemporary and the unscrupulous faction of which it is the accredited exponent. They thought they would have it all their own way; that all they had to do was to magnify the Presidential prerogatives, to sneer at and contemn the authority of the People, as exercised through their representatives in Congress; to point at the use of military power in restoring unrepentant and red-handed rebels to seats of authority in the government; and the loyal men, who sustained the nation through all the storm and tempest of the war, would slavishly quail and consent to any exactions that might be laid on them.

The President and Secretary of State, in the speeches made by them in their Progress to Chicago, have so far presumed upon the power with which they are clothed, and upon the docility of the People, as to avow, in terms not to be misinterpreted, what they really intend. These speeches reveal the true and full significance of the New Orleans massacre, and excite just apprehensions that like bloody and detestable tragedies are in preparation all over the Southern States. The People see; they hear; they reflect; they decide; and they are prepared to act. In the darkest days of the rebellion they were not sadder than they are now, nor more fully resolved, whatever may betide, that treason shall be made odious, and that traitors shall be punished.

A WORD WITH MR. CLYMER.

You made a speech at Uniontown on the 28th of last month, which we find reported in the Democratic organ of Fayette county. This report we conclude to be a fair one.

In this speech, as reported, you made an admission you would not have made two years ago. This is it:

"The war WAS waged for three purposes: First, To preserve the Union intact; second, to sustain the Constitution; and, third, to enforce the laws."

This is the plain, unvarnished truth. In view of it, we want you to explain why you steadily refused, in your place in the Senate, to vote men and money for the prosecution of the war. No dodging, sir. Was it because you was on the side of the rebels, and hence opposed to the preservation of the Union, the sustainment of the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws?

When you have finished on that interrogatory, we beg your attention to another matter. The Constitution defines the nature of treason, and the laws prescribe its punishment. The President spoke truly when he said, "treason is the highest crime known to the laws, and ought to be punished as such." The Radicals stand to-day for the preservation of the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws, and in this very case. Why don't you stand with them? Are you opposed to the enforcement of the laws? or do you want to make an exception in favor of the rebels because they are your political friends?

We await your response, Mr. CLYMER.

NEW YORK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

This body met at Syracuse on Wednesday, and unanimously and enthusiastically re-nominated REUBEN E. FENTON for Governor. He is a man of great stability and integrity, and eminently fit to be trusted in such a crisis as that through which the country is now passing.

The speeches delivered during the sessions of the Convention were decidedly clear and strong on all the current issues. From their temper it is manifest the President, by his coarseness and insolence, his utter disregard of honorable pledges, and his fixed determination, so far as in him lies, to restore the rebel leaders to the control of the government, has aroused a storm of indignation from the masses of loyal men which will not be appeased, and which he cannot hope successfully to confront.

The resolutions adopted, though expressed in measured and dignified language, are in sentiment fully up to the occasion. There is no giving way under the threatened coercion of the President.

No reasonable doubt whatever remains of the result in that State. The men who saved the government on the battle-field, will save it once more at the ballot-boxes.

THE President's war against the radicals continues. The latest notable incident is the burning of the Union League Club House at Philadelphia. The rebels tried the incendiary game with some success;

REPUBLICAN IMPROVEMENTS.

The time is near at hand when the people will be called upon to decide whether the administration of the government of adopt a similar system here, but it was demanded in vain till the Republican Party came into power, when it was at once adopted, and now any amount under twenty dollars can be sent from any Money Order office to any other Money Order office in the United States, without risk to either the one that sends the money or to the Government, for ten cents, and any sum under fifty dollars for twenty-five cents. These are facts which we all know. Let us think of them when we come to deposit our ballots.

Let us now look at the Interior Department. For ten years a large majority were in favor of giving the public lands to actual settlers. The Whigs said they were in favor of it, the Free Soilers said they were in favor of it, and the Democrats said the same. They had the power, but it was supposed to be against the interest of Slavery that the "poor white trash" should become independent farmers, owning their own houses, and cultivating their own fields, and voting as they doubtless would, in favor of freedom in the territories; therefore the Homestead Bill was defeated every winter, till the "poor white trash" declared their independence by electing one of their own number—a rail splitter, President. The Homestead Bill was passed and now thousands of poor men are settling on quarter sections of the public lands, and they and their children after them will have cause to bless the day when the Executive and Legislative powers of the Government were placed in the hands of the great Union Republican Party.

Had the Homestead Bill been adopted ten years sooner, the Slavery question would have been settled without war, the United States would be out of debt, and, better still, hundreds of thousands of precious lives would have been saved.

Next in order comes the Pacific Railroad. All parties were in favor of this measure. The Cincinnati Platform unfortunately left it out, but BUCHANAN, in his letter of acceptance, put it in. The Democrats had the power. Why did they not make the road? Echo answers, Why? The only reason is that it was above and beyond their capacity. They could make political platforms which could be read to mean one thing at the North, and quite another thing at the South, but how to construct a railroad to the Pacific was above their comprehension. As soon as the Republicans came into power the work was commenced, and every few weeks we read that forty miles more of it had been completed, and within a few years the greatest internal improvement ever undertaken by man, will be finished. The same might be said of the Pacific telegraph. Indeed, we look in vain for any great improvement which was made while the Democrats were in power. The people made many improvements and inventions, but the Government none.

Let us now look at the Army and Navy. See what improvements have been made in our ships of war. One of our iron-clad monitors would sink all the ships we owned before the war.

When BUCHANAN was President, he went to war with the Mormons. He sent an army of several hundred men, under command of General S. JOHNSON, to subdue them, and such was the imbecility of the War Department that it took one whole summer to furnish the soldiers a suitable outfit, and they started so late in the fall that they were stopped by the snows in the Rocky Mountains, and it cost forty cents per pound to transport provisions to keep them from starving, and when they finally got to Salt Lake City the Mexican folly was repeated—a civilian was sent to insult the Commanding General by negotiating for peace without his advice or consent.

The Assassination Conspirators.

A letter from Fort Jefferson, Dry Tortugas, says:

Beside the State prisoners, Arnold, Mudd (Dr.) Spangler and O'Loughlin, there are two hundred other prisoners sentenced here for different periods by the widely extended provost jurisdiction of the army. All these prisoners are working upon the large and stately fortification. The party of prisoners of State are each and all in the enjoyment of excellent health. Arnold is the clerk to the commanding General, who represents him as a staid and useful young man, always doing his duty cheerfully, and possessed of friends among the officers and men of the fort. Dr. Mudd employs each day in sweeping and sanding the innumerable stairways of the fort, always under a strong guard. He still continues demure, however, as well as exceedingly impatient of restraint. It is thought that Spangler, whose term of service covers six years only, will be pardoned ere long for obvious reasons. He and O'Loughlin are at work on the fortification.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

A Convention of the honorably discharged Soldiers' and Sailors' of Allegheny County was held yesterday morning, at half past ten o'clock, in City Hall, for the purpose of expressing their views on the great national questions of the day, and for the election of delegates to attend the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, that convenes in this city on the twenty-fifth of the present month.

On motion of Col. T. M. Bayne, Gen. F. H. Collier, was made temporary Chairman. On taking the Chair, the General made a brief address, in which, after thanking those present for the honor of presiding over the deliberations of an assemblage composed of the honorably discharged Soldiers' and Sailors' of Allegheny County, he took occasion to express his approval of the course pursued by the majority in Congress against the mad scheme of Andrew Johnson. He was in full accord with those who called the Convention that is to assemble in this city on the twenty-fifth. He felt that the voice of those who had defended the country in her hour of peril should be heard now in its behalf. The Convention to which they were about to elect delegates would prove to be one of the most important Conventions that has ever met on this continent, and if their deliberations were characterized by good, sound sense—as he knew they would be—he had no fears for the safety of the country.

When the Chairman had concluded, General James S. Negley and Captain Harper were chosen to act as Vice Presidents in the temporary organization, and Captain N. M. Smith, Capt. E. A. Montooth, Sergeant John H. Kerr, Lieutenant W. S. McCune and the reporters of the Press were appointed to act as Secretaries.

On motion of Colonel T. M. Bayne, a committee of twenty was appointed to nominate permanent officers, with Capt. H. S. Fleming as chairman of the committee.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen to serve on the Committee: Capt. H. S. Fleming, Chairman; Col. T. M. Bayne, Col. D. B. Morris, Capt. J. T. Sample, Gen. Charles Barnes, William Scandrett, Gen. James S. Negley, Capt. Louis Hager, Col. John Snodgrass, Capt. Wm. P. Herbert, Capt. Paxton, Col. J. B. Copeland, Col. Armour, Capt. Wm. Mays, Capt. S. Harper, W. M. McCreery, Jesse H. Lippincott, Capt. William Doyle of the Marines.

The Committee withdrew to an adjoining apartment to perform the labor assigned them, and in their absence Colonel John A. Danks, at the suggestion of Captain W. B. Cook, came forward and delivered a telling and patriotic address, which was greeted by several hearty rounds of applause. In response to repeated calls, Gen. Jas. S. Negley ascended to the stage and also made a brief and characteristic speech, which was interrupted by the arrival of the Committee on Permanent Organization. The General retired, and the Committee submitted the following:

President—General A. L. Pearson, Lawrenceville.

Vice Presidents—Col. D. B. Morris, Pitt township; Col. J. B. Copeland, Elizabeth township; Capt. R. D. Humes, Tarentum; Capt. J. T. Sample, Sewickley Borough; Col. Jas Shafer, Eighth ward, Pittsburgh; Capt. Wm. Doyle, U. S. Navy, First ward, Pittsburgh; Lieut. Col. Robert Monroe, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh; Capt. Chas. W. McHenry, Fourth ward, Pittsburgh; John G. Brown, Hampton township; Lieut. John M. Larimer, Versailles township; Capt. Matthew Felter, Birmingham; Rush Parke, Ohio township; Thos. Linn, Sewickley township; John H. Bailey, East Deer township; Will A. White, Scott township; Lieut. S. H. Ferra, Moon township; United States Navy, Capt. J. R. Nuld, Union township; Capt. Geo. W. Brown, Liberty township; Capt. Thomas S. Sloan, Fifth ward, Pittsburgh; Lieut. William Gerst, Third ward, Allegheny.

Secretaries—Lieutenant William S. McClure, Ross township; Sergeant I. H. Kerr, Liberty township; Captain Norman M. Smith, Liberty township; Captain E. A. Montooth, Tenth ward, Pittsburgh; Guyan M. Irwin, Second ward, Allegheny; Lieutenant E. Torrence, Pittsburgh.

A vote being taken the report was accepted, and the officers nominated were declared elected without a dissenting voice.

Gen. Pearson was then escorted to the chair and introduced to the Convention by Gen. Collier in a few pertinent remarks.

After thanking those present for the honor conferred upon him, he expressed his surprise that he should be chosen to preside over the action of an assemblage consisting of so many brave and gallant men who had been a proud record in the history of their country by their noble and daring deeds on a hundred battle-fields. He said he was not present as a politician but as a soldier. The Convention was not a Democratic, Republican or National Union Convention he said, but a Convention of the honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of Allegheny County, who had fought to preserve the honor and integrity of the Union and had come together now to devise means for its preservation. The speaker said he was in favor of any policy that would accomplish this end. If that advocated by President Johnson would do so he was willing to follow him him throughout his electioneering tour. He would cheer as heartily as any of his most ardent admirers as he listened to his harangues—he would never drink with him. But after reviewing the President's policy in all its various bearings he felt sure that it was not the policy to save the country and the restoration of the Union on a sound basis. He believed the only way to restore the country was to note the way they had shot as advised by the noble Geary. They had shot Southward with their muskets, and conquered the enemy, and now they must direct the shot of their ballots the same way, if they would have victory. (Cheers.)

Colonel T. M. Bayne moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions. The motion was adopted, and the chair appointed the following: Col. T. M. Bayne, Sergt. J. H. Gray, Sergt. Wm. Shore, Lieut. Palmer, Capt. Wm. Paxton.

The committee retired at the request of the chair, to preface their report.

Gen. J. S. Negley moved that the "Boys in blue, in each election district, be requested to elect three delegates to attend the National Union Convention, to be held in this city on the twenty-fifth of the present month. Col. T. M. Bayne opposed the resolution on the ground that he thought it unjust to exclude any man who had fought in defense of the old flag, from participation in the proceedings of the Convention.

Sergeant J. H. Kerr, thought as it was impossible to accommodate the six or seven thousand union soldiers of Allegheny County, within the walls of any structure in the county, that there should be three elected from each district to represent their comrades in the projected Convention on the 25th.

Gen. Negley accepted the amendment conveyed in the suggestion, and the resolution was adopted in the following words.

Resolved, That any honorably discharged soldier or sailor is entitled to a seat in this convention, but that each district in the county in order to expedite matters elect three authorized to vote and speak for them in the national convention.

The Committee on Resolutions then returned and submitted the following report:

WHEREAS, By the machinations and intrigues of political demagogues and impenitent rebels, our country is threatened with anarchy and misrule, if not with another civil war; and whereas, it is our desire to avert, if possible, the recurrence of the afflictions which have bowed the nation down for the past five years; and whereas, it is our unaltered and unalterable belief that the principles for which we fought are endangered and likely to be submerged in the whirlpool of passion and prejudice, and love of power that rule the hour—therefore,

Resolved, By the Soldiers and Sailors of Allegheny county in Mass Convention assembled, that such guarantees as may be necessary to insure national unity, peace and stability should be incorporated into the Constitution of the United States, and confiding in the patriotism and wisdom of the last Congress, we believe that these ends will be secured by the adoption of the following amendments proposed by them, to wit:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article is proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely: "ARTICLE [illegible] Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges and immunities of the citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

"Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed, but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President or Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

"Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as any officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

"Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned; but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be illegal and void."

Resolved, That we recognise in Major General John W. Geary, a tried soldier, a pure statesman, and an unwavering patriot; and that by our voices and votes we will support him as the friend of human elevation and progress, and the faithful representative of the principles for which we fought.

Resolved, That the Union Republican candidates for Congress in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Districts, and the county ticket, deserve and will receive our hearty support.

Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, by his usurpations and treacheries, has forfeited our confidence in him as President and our respect for him as a man. In our judgment, his administration has been an obstacle to our [illegible] be requested to impeach the President for treason.

Capt. Samuel Harper opposed the amendment and said while no one in the Convention thought less of the President than he, yet he thought the amendment impolitic. The President had not been guilty of treason—as he had not waged war on the government of the United States.

Major Negley endeavored to defend the amendment by saying that Andrew Johnson in denying the loyalty of Congress, was guilty of treason.

Captain Harper denied that that constituted treason, and after a light debate the amendment was laid on the table by a unanimous vote.

General J. S. Negley then moved that the delegates present proceed to the election of three delegates for each election district in the county to attend the National Convention on the 25th.

Col. T. M. Bayne in a forcible and argumentative speech opposed the resolution. He was for admitting any man who wore a blue uniform during the war. He wanted the soldiers and sailors to turn out en masse on that occasion.

General J. S. Negley remarked that if such a policy was adopted it would exclude the delegates from other parts of the county. The Convention was not called for the purpose of cheering for the flag and making bombastic speeches, but to deliberate on the great questions that are now agitating the country, and to endeavor to devise some measures for its speedy restoration.

The matter was finally settled by the passage of the following resolution, offered by Capt. Samuel Harper:

Resolved, That the organization of the Boys in Blue in the various election districts in the county be instructed to select three delegates to the Convention, and that the names of those elected be reported to the Resident Committee.

On motion, the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of fifteen to co-operate with the Resident Committee in making preparations for the National Convention.

On motion, adjourned.

Criminal Court.

Court opened yesterday morning at nine o'clock, with Judges Mellon and Brown on the bench.

The evidence and arguments in the case of John Cash and Michael Hall, for committing a rape on the person of Amelia Kennewag, now Mrs. Cash, having been concluded Thursday evening, the Jury were charged by Judge Mellon yesterday morning, after which they retired, and in a short time brought in a verdict of not guilty on the first count of the indictment which charged them with having committed a rape, but guilty on the second count, which charges them with assault and battery with intent to commit a rape.

A motion was made by defendants counsel for an arrest of judgment, and new trial The argument will be heard on Monday.

Henry Folk, an individual who was tried at the March term for fornication, was placed on trial for the larceny of a hat and vest valued at eight dollars, the property of David Boyd, of Indiana township. A verdict of guilty was returned, and the prisoner sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

Daniel McCain was next placed on trial for assault and battery on oath of William Swearengen. A verdict of not guilty was returned, and the prosecutor was directed to pay the costs.

The next case was that of John Conway, a boy fifteen years of age, charged with stealing a lot of iron from Mrs. Olvetta Wharton, of East Birmingham. A plea of guilty having been put in, the Court took into consideration the tender years of the defendant, and committed him to the House of Refuge.

The next case called was that of a father against a son, the father being seventy years of age, and the son fifty. The name of the son is James Wright, and that of his father, Alexander Wright. The father sues the son for larceny as bailee. He states that he gave the son one hundred dollars in money, and that when he asked James for it, James told him to sign a receipt, and he should have the money the next day. The receipt was signed, but when the old gentleman called for the money as per agreement, the young gentleman denied that he owed him anything, and produced the receipt as evidence. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. A motion in arrest of judgment was made, and the argument will be heard next Monday.

John Devore alias John Potts was next placed on trial for having married a Miss Uisler, while he had another wife living in the eastern portion of the State. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was remanded for sentence.

The next was one of the most singular cases that has ever been brought before the court. It was the case of David Dailey alias David Bailey, alias Leazure, alias Blazear, charged with having stolen fourteen head of sheep from Mr. Raltshouse. The prisoner was brought into court looking more like a wild beast than a human being. He had no shirt on his back, and his other clothing was in so dilapidated a condition that he was almost naked to his waist. His tongue stuck out of the left corner of his mouth, and his body swayed back and forth like a drunken man. He paid no attention to Judge, lawyers, witnesses or jury, but stared around with an idiotic stare. If he is not insane it is the best counterfeit we have ever seen. It was shown in evidence that he was sane and shrewd enough when he attempted to sell the sheep, and that he showed no signs of insanity until after he had been placed in the lock up. It was also shown that he was as smart as any of the prisoners in the jail, and a very intelligent letter written by him while in jail was shown to the Judges. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of six and a-quarter cents, and undergo solitary confinement in the penitentiary for two years. During the sentence he assumed the same look that he wore during the trial, and did not appear to know that he was at all concerned in what was going on, or to appreciate his condition. We were informed by a gentleman who said he knew him well, that he was a West Virginia rebel, and a notorious thief. That he had been living lately in Butler county, and that he and his partner had rendered themselves notorious by the number of thefts they had committed, principally of sheep, buckwheat, and such articles. That they were both very shrewd, and that it had heretofore been impossible to bring either of them to conviction. We are under the impression that his lunacy will leave him before he has been many months within the prison walls.

Frank Solomans, a colored boy, was next brought into Court, a charge of being a receiver of stolen goods having been preferred against him. The Grand Jury had ignored the bill, and he was discharged by proclamation.

John Scott, colored, was brought up for assault and battery. He was taken in the act of appropriating some horse shoes, and when arrested by a bystander, he struck the party attempting to make the arrest a severe blow on the head with a brick. A verdict of guilty of assault and battery was rendered, and he was sentenced to the penetentiary for one year.

James Dunn, placed on trial for assault and battery on the person of Pat Kinslow, was found guilty, and remanded for sentence. The parties live in the Eighth ward.

James Brown was next placed on trial for bigamy, the prosecutor being A. Wiedman. The case was still on trial when the Court adjourned.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, September 7, 1866.

A late dispatch by the cable reports the shipment of $2,500,000 from Liverpool for New York. The shipments thus far for this week are five and one-half millions. This sum is doubtless a portion of the proceeds realized from the large shipments of Five Twenties to London within the past three or four weeks. The shippers cannot sell their exchange in New York except at a discount of 3@3¾ per cent, entailing a loss on the shipments of the bonds; and in order to protect themselves, are importing the gold. The balance of trade is at present in our favor, although our imports are considerably in excess of our exports, and it is altogether likely that specie will continue to flow to this country from Europe so long as the large shipments of bonds shall continue. It is to be hoped that the receipt of this gold will place a check on the operations of the clique who now control the gold room.

—The statement of the public debt to the 1st instant is regarded satisfactory to this extent that it shows a total reduction of $37,416,108 during the month of August, and gives a more hopeful showing for the future. The 5-20 6 per cent bonds have increased $14,093,150, and the 5 per cent bonds decreased $149,750. The temporary loan shows a decrease of $73,127,469. The three year compound interest notes have decreased $500,000, and the three year 7-30 notes $29,430,450. The coin-bearing debt has increased $45,694,160, and the currency-bearing debt decreased $160,897,919. The legal-tenders show a decrease of $100,758,136. The available coin has increased $15,011,792, and is now reported to amount to $76,333,918.

The money market works closer. The demand for discounts, in the aggregate, has not increased, but bankers are working on small balances, and are not able, if they were willing, to expand their lines. They find it inconvenient even to keep up the loan column. Country depositors are checking closely, and the outward flow of currency is still in the ascendant. Country bankers write that their means are largely locked up in paper based upon produce transactions, holders of property not being disposed to realize at current prices. There is a great deal of wool in the interior, which was bought on speculation, and would make a loss if sold now. There is also a demand for money for the purchase of stock hogs, and in some places the latter are selling as high as $10@11 gross. Little animals that could be stowed away in a coat pocket, bring $2 per head. This demand for hogs is caused by the enormous corn crop. In many sections the latter cannot be disposed of to any advantage unless it is fed to hogs.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Thursday, says:

"To the general wonder of all persons interested in the gold market, gold opened at a further advance. The closing sale on Tuesday evening was at 146¼. The opening price yesterday morning was at 146¾, from which it advanced to 147—closing at 146¾. With the tide of gold turned from Europe in this direction, and a strong probability that it will continue so until at least the undue amount shipped last summer is returned, the firmness of the gold premium is quite a puzzle. Our bonds, too, are steadily going abroad to meet the increasing demand at higher prices. There is another reason to keep the "balance of trade" largely in our favor. The cotton crop is now harvesting; in fact there are already some ships afloat carrying it to Europe. We may surely calculate upon an export of about, say, one millions bales, which, even at reduced rates, would yield one hundred and fifty to two hundred millions of dollars. All the indications favor a steady increase of gold in this market, and unless the "ring" of operators in it at New York is stronger than we suppose, must fail to keep up its price.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 7, 1866. }

The market for metal is firm and moderately active, the demand being fully up to the supply, and prices although unchanged are well sustained. Stocks light and receipts limited, and of some decriptions the market is almost entirely bare. The following is a partial report of the sales during the week:

PETROLEUM IN LIVERPOOL.

We have private advices from Liverpool up to August 25th, which can be relied upon as being strictly correct. Our informant, who was there on that day and for some time previous, reports that the stock of oil in that market is light, much smaller than he had been led to expect, and while the market was not excited, it was firm, and a speculative feeling was beginning to spring up. On the spot, sales of Refined were made on the morning of the 25th of August at 1s. 11dd., and in the afternoon a slight advance was offered. In London, sales were making on the spot at 2s. 2d. to 2s. 3d., and there, as in Liverpool, the stock was light. Another encouraging fact for American petroleum is the fact that it is steadily and surely driving the English coal oil out of the European markets, and the consumption of the former this season it is confidently expected, will be much larger than ever before.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, August 7.—There is no change to notice in money, and the market remains very easy. The gold market has been steady all day at 145¾@146 and closed at 145⅝. The foreign exchange market is rather more steady, but the demand is moderate. Prime Bankers bills are quoted at 106 for sixty days and 107 for short sight. Francs are 535 and 531¼ for long and short. Government Securities were all firmer with a better demand. The following were the closing prices: Coupons 1865, 108¼@108½; 10-40 Coupons, 98@98¼.

Governments were stronger at the close. Railroad shares are more active and there is a better feeling. At the four o'clock open board the following were the principle sales: Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 30; Rutland Marble, 25¾; Quicksilver, 50⅝; Mariposa preferred, 27⅞; Western Union Telegraph, 58; Erie, 70⅝; Michigan Southern, 85⅝; Reading, 114⅞; Illinois Central, ex-dividend, 122⅝; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 88¼; Chicago and Rock Island, and Pittsburgh, 108⅝; Chicago and North Western, 35⅛; Chicago and North Western preferred, 66⅝; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, first division, 101¼. Gold closed at 146⅛.

Money steady and unchanged. Sterling dull, at 108@108¼. Gold without decided change, opening at 145⅞, advancing to 146⅛, declining to 145⅞, and closing at 146.

Government stocks a shade easier. Freight to Liverpool dull. Stocks higher. Rock Island, 109; Reading, 114; Michigan Southern, 84; Fort Wayne, 104¼; Toledo, Wabash and Western, 44; B., 30; Western Union Telegraph, 58; Mariposa preferred, 28; Quicksilver, 50⅞; Erie, 71; Tennessee, 6's, 70; new 10-40 Coupons, 98½; 5-20 Coupons, '65, 108¼; do '62, 111½; registered of '62, 108½, 6's of '81 Coupons, 111¼. Gold, 146⅛ bid.

At the last open board the stock market was a little off from the highest point, but there was no marked decline. After the call the market was firmer, and closed up firmly at the quotations below. Petroleum Stocks—Benneboff Run, $7; U. S. B., 30, $7,65. Mining Stocks—Columbian G. & S. 135; Con. Gregory Gold, seller 3, 1860; Corydon, 400; Downieville, 155; Gunnell Gold, 110; N. Y., 210; Rocky Mountain, 780.

Madison County (O.) Cattle Sales.

LONDON, (O.) September 5.—Yesterday was "monthly sales day" at London, and the town was alive with cattle, auctioneers, showmen, politicians and the people. The number of cattle in the market was large. About 200 head of three year-olds, were sold. One lot of 55 head, weighing 1300 pounds, sold to Colonel Florence, of Pickaway, at $70 per head. This is the highest price ever obtained for so large a number in this market. Of two-year olds, 125 head were sold at from $34 to $41 per head, the former price being paid for those that weighed 1025 pounds. A large number of yearlings were sold, some choice ones, weighing 600 pounds, at $37. Dry cows and oxen also went at high prices. There were more good cattle in market yesterday than any one this season, and they sold well.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, September 6.—The fresh receipts of beef cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 1,165 head. Entered sales, 942 head, at prices ranging from $4,50@5.45 for common cows and heifers, $5,75@6,25 for fair butchers' stock, and from $7@7,12½ for fair to good shipping beeves.

A strong desire on the part of buyers to fill all orders in the forenoon in order that they might attend at "high meridian" the laying of the corner-stone of the Douglas Monument, and in the afternoon go to the races, stimulated the market generally, and both stockers and speculators unexpectedly "went in" and purchased largely, but they refused to pay yesterday's prices, and sellers had to submit to a concession of 10c per 100 lbs.

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, September 6.—On 'Change there was not much done and the market ruled steady, and as a general thing unchanged. Wheat was firm and in fair milling demand; sales 1 car load No. 1 western spring at $2,20; 2000 do do on private terms. Corn steady and in fair demand; sales 1500 bush do No. 1 from store at 65c; 1 car do do at 66c. Oats steady and in light demand; sales 500 bush new No. 1 State at 34c. Rye quiet but firmer; sale of one car No. 1 at 87½c. Barley meets with some inquiry, and prices range from 75c to $1, according to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 7, 1866 }

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the general tone of the trade, and the market continues quiet and dull, though prices have undergone no essential change, and we continue to quote at 15 to 16, bbls returned, and 20 to 21, packages included, according to gravity, etc., etc. There was but a single sale reported, 80 bbls at 16. The rains of the past day or two have produced hopes of an early resumption of navigation, and the event of large receipts, which are pretty sure to follow in case of a rise, a decline in prices is generally expected. We have no late advices from Oil City, but the reports from the East are not very encouraging, though there as here, prices remain nominally unchanged.

REFINED—There is little or no inquiry for bonded oil, either for present or future delivery, and while the market is dull and inactive prices have undergone no material change—one way or the other. We quote nominally at 38 to 39, free on board cars here; and 44 to 45, delivered in Philadelphia, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. For free oil the demand continues very light, being restricted almost entirely to supplying the wants of the local trade, and, consequently, round lot operations are of very rare occurrence. Prime standard brands may be fairly quoted at 58 to 59.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported today were as follows:

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with scant three feet in the channel by the marks last evening. Heavy rains are reported at the headwaters of the Allegheny, and notwithstanding we have been disappointed two or three times within the past few weeks, a rise in that stream is by no means improbable. Here, we had heavy rains yesterday, and the indications last evening were favorable for more.

There has been no arrivals or departures aside from the regular packets. The Leni Leoti, from Parkersburg, had not arrived up 1 p. m., having, it is thought, been detained by a tow boat sticking in Glass House. The New State, from Wheeling, is due here this morning.

The Elizabeth packet Jas. Rees dropped down under the bridge yesterday, and we presume, is now moored at the main landing. She was sold to some Wheeling and Sunfish parties on Thursday—price, $17,000. With two daily lines to Brownsville, we are of the opinion that the withdrawal of the Rees will not discommode the public very seriously.

In consequence of Lock No. 4 being out of order, the Fayette exchanged trips with the Gallatin on Thursday night, the former returning to this port and the Gallatin to Geneva. The necessary repairs were to have been completed last night, and the Fayette, it was expected, would be able to get through to Geneva.

The Cincinnati Times of Wednesday says: The Maggie Hays took her departure last evening with two barges, all well loaded, having in all 700 tons, which will be added to at Cairo, bringing it to 1000, and 100 tons coal. On the start seventeen insurance offices repudiated her trip, but afterward seven went in her favor and she left with a fair prospect of a good trip and a profitable one.

The Rose Hambleton is reported as having been sold at St. Louis on Wednesday last for $12,000.

The Armadillo is loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans, and the Arabian is loading at the same point for Pittsburgh.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Thursday has the following items:

The Magnolia resumed her regular trips to Maysville yesterday. The Shamrock having retired from the Maysville trade, will load for St. Louis after the Nightingale, in charge of Captain Geo. W. Cullum............The veteran captain Jno. Conner, is commanding the New Richmond packet Mary Ament during the absence of Capt. Selby, who, we regret to learn, is confined to his room by sickness......The Monsoon dropped down to the levee yesterday, with her new boilers and outfit. She leaves for Portsmouth to-day in place of the Emma Floyd, in charge of Capt. Pres. Lodwick and the Bostona's crew............The Abeona reshipped her Memphis freight on the Sherman yesterday, and will not return to Memphis until next week.........Capt. J. S. Wise, Superintendent of the Nashville and Cincinnati Packet Company, is refitting the Rowena, Rebecca, Emma Floyd and Havana for the forthcoming season. As soon as the Cumberland is navigable, the steamers of this line will be on the track again, with new outfits and flying colors. The new side wheel steamer Commodore enters the Big Sandy trade on Saturday, in place of the Revenue recently sunk, plying in connection with the Robert Moore during low water..........The Cottage No. 2 passed Gallipolis yesterday noon, with a large amount of oats for this place.............The Mary Erwin, Capt. Maginnis, has abandoned her trip to the Kanawha, and reships her freight on the Cottage No. 2......Captain Jas. W. Bachelor, of the Franklin Insurance Company, returned from Pittsburgh yesterday............Our informant was premature in announcing the death of Capt. T. Marsh Harton, at Pittsburgh. It was a younger brother who died. The error is attributable to the wording of the telegraphic dispatches sent here............Mr. M. B. Ross, the well known steamboat agent, returned from the east yesterday, where he was recently suddenly called by the death of a lovely daughter. Mr. Ross has rusumed his professional duties............Capt. Wm. Gregg left for St. Louis in last night's train, to take charge of the Champion, leaving that point this evening for Cincinnati.

MRS. M. G. BROWN'S

METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY,

Price, $4,00.

Offices—110 Arch St., Philadelphia,

51 Bond Street, New York.

No boring with instruments.
No blowing in the ears.
No snuffing up the nostrils or introducing wires.
No pouring medicines down the throat.

The METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY will reach every spot that drugs and instruments will reach, and thousands of places besides.

Truth is mighty and must prevail; error is pregnated with death—consequently must sooner or later sink into oblivion.

ARE YOU PREJUDICED?

In consequence of the prejudice existing against patent medicines, it is my earnest desire that my Metaphysical Discovery should not be received or classed with patent medicines of the age. You ask me why? I answer, because it is a scientific speciality, differing in application, tendencies and results, from all other remedies and preparations which have ever gone before it. And further, because the Metaphysical Discovery is the result of inherited power to trace effects to their first cause; therefore let it be understood that the Metaphysical Discovery is not only the result of inherited power, but also the result of a life of rare philosophical research, and that too, in an unbeaten track.

Eyes, and They See Not.

Awake, ye slumbering world and behold yourselves and your children in the prison house of disease, from the cradle to the grave, betake yourselves to thought—think and live. The world writhes in pain and passes into untimely graves. Mark, learn, that your friends die through experimenting on. Every effect driven is a death blow to the physical system. I have never met an individual who was treated for anything but effect. There are many agonizing hearts, sorrowful homes and grassy graves through the use of instruments which torture, and medicines which destroy the system.

The Discovery consists of three distinct preparations, which pass into the system by absorption through the Eyes, Ears and Scalp.

It is packed in a neat wooden case, and will be sent to any address in the world, on receipt of the above price,

CERTIFICATES OF CURES.

I, S. C. Chase, of Cambridgeport, Mass., do certify that I have been troubled with a bad catarrh for upwards of thirty years. I obtained Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery, and in ten minutes after using it found relief. I have used the medicine faithfully, and believe it went to the root of my disease. I feel as if catarrh was eradicated from my system, the foul effects of the sad disease having ceased. My wife also has been suffering from a complication of diseases. On using the Discovery, clotted blood and matter rushed from her head, and she found immediate relief, and has been gaining health ever since. We heartily recommend the Metaphysical Discovery to all who suffer.

CURE OF CATARRH, ASTHMA, &c.

Mrs. Cheever, residing at No. 6 Allen street, Boston, Mass., says: "I have been troubled for years with asthma, catarrh, and sore throat. I suffered from continual pain and dizziness in my head, cold feet, &c.; for eight years could not attend to my household duties, and had despaired of ever being cured. Providentially learning of Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery, I obtained it. The result is, I am entirely cured, and determined to keep a box of it always in my house."

MRS. GEORGE VAUGHN'S CERTIFICATE, OF MALDEN MASS.

This is to certify that I have suffered for ten years from dyspepsia, catarrh, and a complication of diseases. For the past year I have been restless, and could not sleep at night. So exhausted had I become, that I was unable to do my household duties. I became so cold, that it seemed impossible to keep warm. For sometime my eyes were very much diseased, and my hearing dull. Myself and friends considered me in Consumption. In this state I went to Mrs. M. G. Brown and obtained the Metaphysical Discovery. I have used one box faithfully, and no language can tell the benefit received from it. My eyes have become clear and strong. My dyspepsia is entirely gone. I can now do my own work, and feel altogether a new being. My friends say I am gaining flesh. I know as I was I could not have lived. I feel grateful to God for the benefit I have received. I recommend Mrs. M. G. Brown and her mode of treatment to all who suffer as I have done.

CATARRH CURED.—MR. JEROME A. O'CONNOR, OF OLD CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This is to certify that I have been troubled with a bad catarrh for the last five years. This winter it became unusually troublesome. I was obliged to rise at night, owing to the mucus, which would have suffocated me. I obtained Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery some weeks back, used it faithfully, and my catarrh began to give way at once. I now consider myself a cured young man, being entirely delivered from the terrible disease of catarrh. My sister has also been diseased in her head and eyes from childhood, so much so that the family thought she could not live. In the use of the Discovery she has received equal benefit with myself. We cordially recommend the Metaphysical Discovery.

MISS E. LOGAN'S CERTIFICATE.

I, Emma Logan, do hereby testify that I have had a severe cough for six years; would cough and raise for three hours at a time; often I could not lie down at night; going up stairs, any work would exhaust me. I have been taking medicine and doctoring all the time, but was still getting worse. Providentially a friend procured Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery, I have used it one week, and my cough is nearly gone, I have got rid of the tightness in my throat. I can now take a long breath, which I could not do before. I can go up and down stairs without feeling any fatigue. I feel disease is fast leaving my system. No. 3/4 Hanover street, Boston, Mass.

A REMARKABLE CURE.

A case of the worst type of Chronic Sore Eyes of Twenty-five years standing cured by my Metaphysical Discovery.

I, Eliza B. Jeffries, do certify that I have been suffering for twenty-five years with diseased eyes, taken from measles when a child. I cannot describe the nature of all my sufferings, but will state that my eyes ran corruption and water all the time. My cheeks also broke out down to my chin, and the matter from both eyes and face kept constantly dropping on my dress. All the doctors I applied to failed to render me relief, and I despaired of finding it until learning of the wonderful cures made by Mrs. M. G. Brown, when hope entered my breast. I went to see her, and brought home with me the Metaphysical Discovery. I used it according to directions, and now most solemnly and thankfully declare, that through the blessing of God and the use of Mrs. M. G. Brown's medicines I am a cured woman.
ELIZA B. JEFFRIES.

Noises in the Head, Running of the Ears, Stiff Neck and Sore Throat cured by Mrs. M. G. Brown, 110 Arch street, Metaphysical Physician, Professor on the Eye, Ear, Throat and Scalp.

The following persons have been cured of the above diseases through the use of my Metaphysical Discovery:

Miss Rebecca Watson, St. Paul street, Frankford, cured of deafness and noises in the head, can now hear the children called by their names in the next house.

William Einwechter, 1349 North Front street, a lad of about 15 years, was very deaf; can now hear the notes distinctly on the piano. Could not hear a sound before. His whole system is benefitted, as he was an invalid.

Peter Kelly, 1627 South Second street, was quite deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, has regained the hearing of both well.

Daniel Humphreys, of Darby township, had a swelled and stiff neck for eight years; could not turn his head without turning round his whole body; had also a large lump, size of a ball, and hard, under his chin, for one year. Both have disappeared through the use of my Metaphysical Discovery.

A son of Captain David Ware, in Wilmington, Delaware, has been cured of deafness and running of the ears, of 15 years standing. Spent large sums of money on different remedies; could find no benefit; procured my Metaphysical Discovery, which immediately cured him.

CERTIFICATE FROM THE REV. E. S. HENSON, PASTOR OF THE BROAD STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA.

From injuries received in my right eye when a boy, a chronic inflammation has been produced, in consequence of which I suffered martyrdom. Every moment of my waking life was embittered, and I was frequently unable to sleep at night. A variety of remedies has been resorted to without success, and I entertained the purpose, as a last resort, of having the ball taken out of the socket, in the hope of thus finding relief. In the meantime, most providentially, I noticed one day in a shop window a bottle of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER. I had never heard of it before, and I determined to try it, and did, with the most delightful results. In a few days the painful irritation was removed. I could bear the strongest light, and went forth as it were to the enjoyment of a new life. I now keep a bottle of it always in the house, and if my eye [illegible] at all disposed to annoy me, I give it a dose, and there is an end to it. I would not be without it for any amount of money. I have occasion to say further, that my wife used to suffer severely at times from protracted pain in and over her eyes, and she has found Poor Richard's Eye Water a [illegible] specific in her case, giving her almost instant relief.

Grateful to God for the benefit I have personally received, I cannot but commend the preparation most cordially to those who have suffered like myself.
